

The Suffolk County Department of Parks Offers:

Sportfishing On Long Island

Presented by Captain Jerry McGrath

An experienced fisherman, lecturer, author and former Montauk Charter Skipper, Captain McGrath has been honored by the Suffolk Association for continuing/community Education with a Teacher of the Year award.

A course designed for novices as well as old salts. Species covered include striped bass, flounder, blackfish, fluke, weakfish, bluefish, shark and tuna.

Classes are held for 10 consecutive weeks every Monday night at the Dennison Building on Vets Hwy in Hauppauge. Each class begins at 7:30pm and lasts approximately 2 hours, beginning March 15, 2010.

Course Fee: $130.00 per person

Make check payable to: Captain Jerry McGrath

Mail check and registration form to:

Suffolk County Parks Department
Attn: Terry Maccarrone
P.O. Box 144 – Montauk Highway
West Sayville, NY 11796

Course Instruction to Include:

- Bait and Lure Selection
- Chumming
- Fishing locales and "hot" spots
- Anchoring
- Tackle Selection
- Safety
- Use of A/V materials such as slides, overhead transparencies, videotapes, and detailed computerized handouts
- Periodic presentations by guest speakers
- Free sample copies of angling publications such as "The Salt Water Sportsman"

For registration information please call (631) 854-4947

Steve Levy, County Executive

John Pavacic, Commissioner

Registration Form

Sportfishing on Long Island – begins March 15, 2010.

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____ Phone _____

Alt. Phone _____ E-Mail _____

Course Registration Fee: $130.00

Checks payable to: Captain Jerry McGrath

Please detach and return with check no later than March 15, 2010.